

Trans World Educational Experiences

Data Protection Policy

Introduction

Trans Worlds Educational Experiences is committed to protecting the rights and freedoms of data subjects, and securely processing their data in accordance with our legal obligations.

We hold personal data about our employees, clients, suppliers and other individuals for a variety of business purposes.

This policy sets out how we seek to protect personal data and ensure that our staff understand the rules governing their use of the personal data to which they have access during their work.

This policy requires staff to ensure that the Data Protection Officer (DPO) be consulted before any significant new data processing activity is initiated to ensure that relevant compliance steps are addressed.

The principles

Trans World Educational Experiences shall comply with the principles of data protection of the EU General Data Protection Regulation.

The Principles are:

1. Lawful, fair and transparent

Data collection must be fair, for a legal purpose and we must be open and transparent as to how the data will be used.

2. Limited for its purpose

Data can only be collected for a specific purpose.

3. Data minimisation

Any data collected must be necessary and not excessive for its purpose.

4. Accurate

The data we hold must be accurate and kept up to date.

5. Retention

We cannot store data longer than necessary.

6. Integrity and confidentiality

The data we hold must be kept safe and secure.

Data Breaches

In the event of a breach of security leading to the accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to, personal data, Transworld Educational Experiences shall promptly assess the risk to people's rights and freedoms and if appropriate report this breach to the ICO.
